The Redskins' Band

Maybe, some years, you can prod a grudging admission from a Redskin fan that his team isn't, perhaps, the very best in the whole world, but you'll never get him to say the Redskin Marching Band isn't the "bes' ban' in the lan'."

It's composed of volunteers of all sizes and ages—printers, plumbers, sheet metal workers; mechanics, painters, electrical engineers; students, bookbinders, and, oh, yes, of course, even musicians. There are father-son, brother-brother, nephew-uncle combinations.

It all started back in '37. A few days before the second game, a milk company employees' band asked permission to parade at home games. For the rest of the season, these musical milkmen played to their hearts' content . . . and to the fans' delight.

Before the following season, Screen Star Corinne Griffith had written lyrics to "Hail to the Redskins!"; Maestro Barnee Breeskin had written the music, the Redskins had rented Indian costumes . . . and the band played on!

It has been playing ever since. It has marched up Broadway at the head of 15,000 fans. And it has played alongside Waring, White-man and the Philharmonic in the Philadelphia Inquirer's Music Festival. It has entertained at games in Pittsburgh, Boston, Baltimore, Cleveland, Norfolk, Philadelphia and New York.

The organization is military-like. At the head is Chief Richard Viancour, former Navy bandleader. Each marching line is a unit, with a chief who is responsible for his unit's ability and discipline. The band's own arranger carefully times his scores to 90 seconds for time-outs. The band's own librarian has on file some 200 arrangements, ranging from "Hold That Tiger!" to "Poor Butterfly."

Wardrobe men, who care for the $20,000 worth of costumes, know their business so well that the bandsmen can file through one end of a box car in street clothes and out the other end in Indian get-up—all within 25 minutes!

The band's drum majors have diagrams of scores of maneuvers, man-by-man and step-by-step, and, in one rehearsal, can whip the band into any design from a shamrock to a Christmas tree.

The band has its own secretary, its own letterheads and its own esprit de corps. It rehearses once every week and last season, despite weather, illness, business demands and domestic problems, compiled an astounding attendance record of 94 percent!

- Sept. 16—Redskins play first game in Nation's Capital . . . 19,941 paying customers in flood-lighted Griffith Stadium . . . Jesse Jones throws out first ball . . . and Riley Smith plays with it all night as he scores all Redskin points with two field goals, 60-yard touchdown romp with intercepted pass, and extra point in 13-3 victory over New York Giants.
- Oct. 17—Cliff Battles gallops 71, 65 and 60 yards for touchdowns as Steelers succumb, 34-20.
- Oct. 24—Twenty-five seconds to go, Riley Smith boots field goal to beat Eagles, 10-7.
- Oct. 31—Baugh fools 'em all . . . plunges through line for touchdown against Brooklyn in 21-0 win.
- Nov. 29—Largest net paid football crowd to date in Washington history—24,702—sees Vice President Garner throw out first ball as Redskins drub defending champion Packers, 14-6.
- Dec. 5—The first invasion of Manhattan . . . Broadway is jarred from its Sunday morning sleep by some 10,000 frenzied, feather-wearing fans parading up the Great White Way behind a brass band . . . Battles and Baugh go to town . . . Sam completes 11 out of 15, Cliff runs 75 and 76 yards for touchdowns in 49-14 rout.
- Dec. 12—World Champions! Wayne Millner skates 77 and 55 yards with Baugh passes as Redskins whip Chicago Bears on frozen Wrigley Field, 28-21.

1938

- Feb. 26—Andy Farkas signs.
- Aug. 2—Baugh abandons baseball career; quits Rochester Red Wings of St. Louis Cardinals' farm system; signs 3-year Redskin contract.
- Aug. 9—The Redskin Band organized; built around Chestnut Farms' Dairy Employees Band which had played at last five home games during 1937.

Aug. 17—The Tribe's now familiar marching song, "Hail to the Redskins," introduced over coast-to-coast hook-up (WOL-Mutual).
 Aug. 31—Baugh hurt on first play, Redskins lose to College Stars, 28-16.
 Sept. 11—Trick play makes Guard Bill Young eligible for pass which he snares for 67-yard touchdown run that beats Eagles, 26-23; Baugh completes 12 of 13 passes but is hurt.
 Sept. 18—Bob Masterson's 15-yard field goal in last eight seconds salvages 16-16 tie with Brooklyn; Farkas stars in debut.
 Sept. 25—Farkas tallies three touchdowns and kicks two extra points against Rams—highest point total by any Redskin in single game.
 Oct. 16—Largest pro football crowd to date in Detroit history—37,071—sees Farkas run wrong way to give Lions' safety, but Andy stages great comeback to be hero in 7-5 Redskin win.
 Nov. 13—Six Redskins hurt as Bears run amok, 31-7.
 Dec. 4—Seven fumbles by Redskins . . . six interceptions by Giants . . . Score: Giants 36, Redskins 0.
 Dec. 8—Riley Smith quits pro football; signs as backfield coach at Washington & Lee.
 Dec. 9—Best player draft in Redskin history: Dick Todd, Wilbur Moore. Dick Farman, Clyde Shugart and Steve Slivinski plucked from annual grab bag at same time.

1939

Oct. 1—Only scoreless tie in Redskin history as Giants and Tribe battle in mud; Baugh hurt, lost for two games.
 Oct. 15—Farkas runs 97 yards with two-yard pass as Steelers are walloped, 44-14; longest pass play in National Football League history; longest run by any Redskin.
 Nov. 5—Charley Malone runs 20 yards with Baugh pass in first four minutes to give Redskins skimpy 7-6 win over Eagles in rain.
 Nov. 12—Farkas runs opening kickoff 91 yards for touchdown to ignite the spark of 42-0 victory over Brooklyn; Dick Todd makes 80-yard punt return for touchdown.
 Nov. 19—Farkas scampers 80 yards with pass in first three minutes to start 28-7 rout of Cards.
 Dec. 3—Bo Russell's try for field goal from 15-yard line in final minute is ruled wide by Referee Halloran and 'Skins are deprived of victory that would have made them Eastern champs.
 Dec. 9—Bob Seymour, eighth choice, only standout in Redskins' worst draft list.

1940

Jan. 14—Turk Edwards signs as assistant coach, succeeding Roy Baker, who resigns to accept position in movie industry.
 Sept. 22—Todd runs 78 yards with punt for touchdown as Giants are whipped, 21-7.

Oct. 27—Todd breaks through for 51-yard touchdown run to edge Lions in last quarter, 20-14.
 Nov. 17—Todd scores game's only touchdown on 15-yard run with pass; then saves game in last 10 seconds by overhauling George McAfee on 2-yard line as Redskins beat Bears, 7-3.
 Dec. 1—Little Davey O'Brien thrills Griffith Stadium crowd with 33 completions in 60 pass attempts, but Redskins win, 13-6.
 Dec. 8—73-0.

1941

Apr. 5—Ki Aldrich obtained from Chicago Cardinals in trade for Halfback Jimmy Johnston.

 Nov. 9—Todd lost for four weeks, knee hurt, as Brooklyn wins, 13-7.
 Nov. 16—We make 18 first downs to Bears' 9, but lose, 35-21.
 Nov. 23—Without Todd or Moore, Redskins overcome 0-10 Giant lead in last quarter to go ahead, 13-10, but New Yorkers get touchdown and field goal in 50 seconds to win, 20-13.
 Nov. 30—Redskins leading, 17-0, at half . . . Don Hutson goes wild . . . catches three touchdown passes . . . and Packers win, 22-17.

1942

July 26—Arthur J. (Dutch) Bergman joins Redskins' staff as chief scout.
 Aug. 30—Redskins whip Army All-Stars, 26-7, before 50,962 crowd (net paid) in Los Angeles Coliseum; Army Emergency Relief Society nets $52,383.84.
 Sept. 20—Steelers' Bill Dudley takes second-half kickoff 84 yards for touchdown, but Ki Aldrich blocks field goal try, picks up ball and runs 60 yards for touchdown as 'Skins rally to win, 28-14.
 Sept. 27—Giants don't make first down, gain merely ONE yard from scrimmage and net just 50 yards in passing—but win, 14-7 . . . O'Neale Adams intercepts Dick Poillon's pass and runs 66 yards for one touchdown . . . Tuffy Leemans throws 30-yard pass to Will Walls, who runs 20 for other touchdown.
 Oct. 25—Largest pro football crowd in Pittsburgh history—38,642—sees Redskins win, 14-0.
 Nov. 1—Masterson's angled field goal from 10-yard line just as gun ends game nips Eagles, 30-27.
 Nov. 8—Baugh's three touchdown passes, two 74-yard quick kicks, whip Cardinals, 28-0.
 Nov. 15—Redskins inside Giants' 20-yard line six times in first half, but can't score; then Farkas takes kickoff opening second half and runs 94 yards for touchdown to start Tribe on way to 14-7 victory.

- Nov. 22—Masterson and Perry Schwartz, Brooklyn end, fight as Redskins triumph, 23-3.
- Dec. 13—World Champions! Lee Artoe scoops up bad pass from center and runs 40 yards to score touchdown that gives Bears early lead, but Baugh's 85-yard quick kick puts Chicago back on its heels, then his 35-yard pass to Moore puts Redskins ahead and Andy Farkas caps victory by carrying ball 10 out of 12 plays on 80-yard touchdown march. Score: 14-6.

Hail to the Redskins!

This is the official song of the Redskins. Its lyrics were written by Corinne Griffith and the music by Barnee Breeskin. It is published by Leo Feist, Inc. Sheet music and recordings are available in all major music and radio stores.

HAIL TO THE REDSKINS, Hail Vic-to-ry,

Braves on the war-path, Fight for old D. C.

Scalp 'em, swamp 'em. We will take 'em big score.

Read 'em, weep 'em. Touch-down we want heap more.

Fight on. Fight on till you have won.

Sons of Wash-ing-ton (Rah! Rah! Rah!)

HAIL TO THE REDSKINS, Hail Vic-to-ry.

Braves on the war-path. Fight for old D. C.

All Redskins' Games Broadcast by Harry Wismer for Amoco

Wherever the Redskins play—on their own home grounds in the Nation's Capital or on the road—Harry Wismer, America's leading sports-caster, is there calling 'em play-by-play, on behalf of the American Oil Company, maker of Amoco Products.

The Amoco "network" covers 1,250,000 radio homes in Washington and in surrounding cities and towns. 1947 marks the fourth season the American Oil Company has sponsored the Redskins' broadcasts and also the fourth season with Harry Wismer at the mike.

Those who live in the mid-Atlantic States are great sports fans. Every Sunday from September to December millions of them are glued to their loudspeakers listening to Amoco's vivid broadcasts of the Redskins vs. their National League opponents.

Wismer, who was selected last January as one of "the 10 outstanding Young Men of the Year," by the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce, started out in life in Port Huron, Mich., to be an athlete, but a broken leg ended his athletic career.

The sidelined athlete, yearning to keep in touch with sports, turned to radio and success was almost immediate. For four consecutive years, he has won the Sporting News Award as the nation's No. 1 sports commentator. For two consecutive years, he has won the Washington Touchdown Club's award as the nation's outstanding announcer. And just last season he was named by the Atlanta Touchdown Club as the sportscaster who has done the most for southern athletics.

Sports director of American Broadcasting Co. since its organization in 1942, Harry is one of the busiest men in radio. He airs some 30 football games per year, including the Sugar Bowl and the world's pro championship; the national singles and doubles; the National Open and PGA; the Penn Relays; and numerous other sports spectacles.

Harry, a dynamic, husky, handsome, curly-headed 34-year-old, is married, has two children and lives in Detroit, Mich.
